INSTRUCTIONS

1. Stick the masking spot sticker to the center of the plate. If you do not have a sticker you can draw a circle in the center with the marker.
2. Paint the space outside the circle with 3 coats of Licorice.
3. Use the straight pin to remove the sticker by poking it 1/4" from the edge of the sticker and scooping the pin upward.
4. Fill in the circle with 3 coats of Caribbean Blue.
5. Use a marker to sketch out the writing and lines on the black part of the plate.
6. Use a detail brush to apply 2 coats of Snowflake to the lettering.
7. Next, use a liner brush to apply 1 coat of Snowflake to the lines.
8. Finally dip the handle of a brush into Licorice and apply a dot to the center of the blue circle.

TIPS

- 3 coats of paint will give you a solid color.
- By poking the pin 1/4" from the edge of the sticker this will avoid scraping up the edge of the circle.
